In an announcement – watch below – Israeli Defense Minister Yoav Gallant told Channel 12 that starving the roughly two million people who live in the Gaza Strip is necessary to ensure Israel's "existence in the region."

"It will take many weeks," Gallant said about the deprivation operation. "There will be steps here that have never been seen before."

"There will be no electricity, no food, no fuel," he further added. "We are fighting human animals and we will act accordingly."

Israel aggressively bombing Gaza – dozens of casualties reported

As for the water portion, Israeli Minister of Energy and Infrastructure Israel Ketz announced the immediate halt of all water flow to the Gaza Strip.

Without food, water, electricity and fuel, Gaza's two million residents will be unable to live for very long, which appears to be Israel's next "shock and awe" plan for that much-desired strip of land.

Meanwhile, the Israeli military is going to town with continuous and heavy airstrikes on Gaza. Already, there have been dozens of reported deaths from these attacks – watch below:

The United Nations Special Rapporteur for Human Rights in Palestine issued a statement about this retaliation calling for it to end, especially since there are millions of innocent people being targeted alongside the terrorists.

"We are horrified by what is happening and we call for a truce," the body said.

An ambulance director who works in the Gaza Strip further told the media that the situation there is catastrophic. He called it the worst catastrophic humanitarian situation that has occurred there in the past 20 years.

"I have released all the restraints," Gallant further added in a statement about Israel's "full offense" against the Gaza Strip.

"We have (regained) control of the area and we are moving to a full offense," he said at a meeting with Israeli military and defense fighters near the Gaza border.

"You fought with great courage," he commended the Israeli side. "You have seen what we are fighting: human animals."

"You can change the reality here. You have seen the prices (paid) and will see the change. Hamas wanted change in Gaza; it would change 180 degrees from what they thought. They will regret this moment: Gaza will never be what it was."

Gallant would go on to basically state that as long as Hamas "continues to exist," Israeli children will be "murdered in the countryside" This imagery is meant to provoke more hatred and more willingness by Israeli soldiers to commit atrocities against the country's enemies.

According to reports, Israeli airstrikes in Gaza have already killed about 830 people, many of them civilians. The Israeli army further claims that some 1,500 Hamas militiamen were killed during the attacks.

One of Hitlers original plans was to transfer all of the Kazars(Eastern Jews) to Madagascar, and not Palestine. That would have saved the World a lot of trouble.

The cutting off of these things is not in retaliation. (These are GIVEN to them for free.. don't pay for them.) The reason they have been cut off is an offer to turn them back on if the hostages are returned. It also encourages the innocent to evacuate as requested.
